

✓ Read the story three times.

Pat the Cat

Pat is a cat.

Pat is yellow.

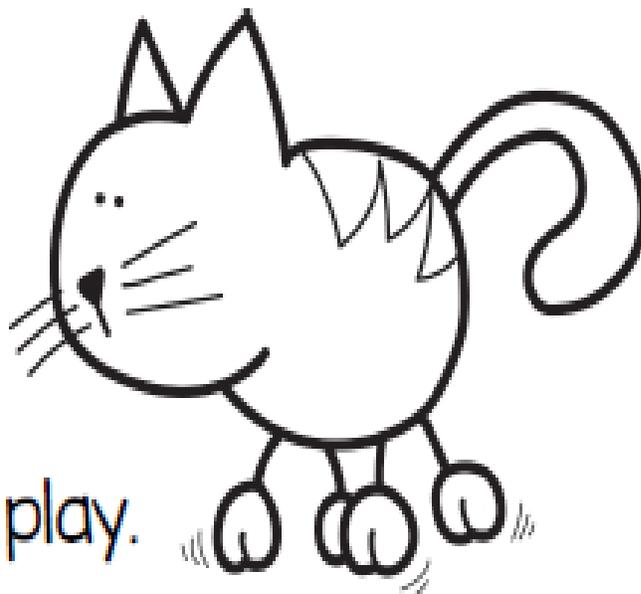

Pat is little.

Pat likes to nap.

He likes to eat.

Pat likes to run and play.

Have fun, Pat!

Check your understanding of the story.

- 1. Say all the words with short and long vowel sound a.*
- 2. Who is Pat?*
- 3. What does Pat like to do?*
- 4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.*

✓ Read the story three times.

Pat the Cat

Pat is a little, yellow cat.

He likes to run fast.

He likes to play with toys.

Pat also likes to nap a lot!

He has a bed. It is red and soft.

Pat likes to eat, too. On some days, he gets treats.

Pat is a happy cat!

Check your understanding of the story.

- 1. Say all the words with short vowel sound a.*
- 2. Say the words that tell you what Pat likes to do.*
- 3. Where does Pat nap?*
- 4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.*

✓ Read the story three times.

Pat the Cat

Pat is a little, yellow cat.
He likes to run fast.
He likes to play with toys.

Pat also likes to nap a lot!
He has a red bed. It is fluffy and soft.

Pat likes to eat crunchy cat treats. Some of his treats are shaped like a fish. Other treats are shaped like a mouse. Yum!

Pat is a happy cat!

Check your understanding of the story.

1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds.
2. Which words tell more about Pat's bed?
3. What does Pat like to eat?
4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.

✓ Read the story three times.

A Cold Day

Pat the cat and Tip the dog want to go out. Kim and Sam think it is too cold, but they will let them go outside anyway.

Brrr! It is too cold outside. It is windy. It is rainy. Pat meows. Tip barks. Now, Pat and Tip want to go inside. Where are the kids?

Check your understanding of the story.

1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds.
2. Who is Tip?
3. Why do they want to go inside?
4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.

✓ Read the story three times.

A Cold Day

Pat the cat and Tip the dog want to go out. Pat will meow. Tip will bark. Kim and Sam think it is too cold. But they are tired of meowing and barking, so they let them outside.

Brrr! It is too cold outside. It is windy. It is rainy. Pat meows again. Tip barks again. Now, Pat and Tip want to go inside. Where are the kids?

Check your understanding of the story.

1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds.
2. Why did Kim and Sam let them go outside?
3. Pick out a word that is opposite to hot.
4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.

✓ Read the story three times.

A Cold Day

Pat the cat and Tip the dog really want to go out today! Pat is meowing and scratching at the door. Tip keeps barking and jumping. Kim and Sam tell their pets it is too cold. But they are tired of noisy meowing and barking, so they let them outside.

Brrr! It is too cold outside. A cold rain comes down on Pat and Tip. Then, a chilly wind blows and makes them even colder! They run to the door together. Pat meows and scratches to go in. Tip barks and jumps to go in. Now, Pat and Tip want to go inside. Where are the kids?

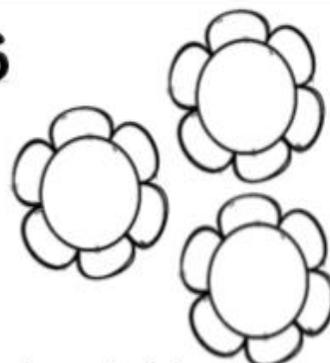

Check your understanding of the story.

1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds.
2. What does Pat do when it wants to go outside/inside?
3. What does Tip do it wants to go outside/inside?
4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.

✓ Read the story three times.

Pretty Flowers

Pat, the yellow cat, sat at the window on a sunny day. He saw a lot of red and yellow flowers. Kim and Sam had planted them last week with their mom.

Pat watched the birds in the tall trees. The sun was bright and warmed his fur. Tip, the brown dog, wanted to go outside, but Pat was happy by the window.

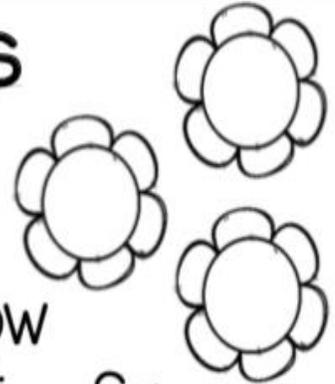

Check your understanding of the story.

1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds
2. What are the colours of flowers?
3. Who wanted to go outside?
4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.

✓ Read the story three times.

Pretty Flowers

Pat, the yellow cat, sat at the window on a sunny spring day. He saw many red and yellow flowers that were planted by Kim, Sam, and Mom a week ago.

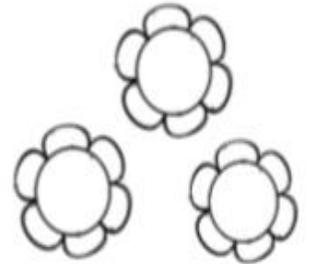

Pat watched the birds flutter in the tall trees. The sun was bright and warmed his fur. Tip, the silly, brown dog, wanted to go outside, but Pat was happy inside. He chose to stay and nap by the window.

Check your understanding of the story.

1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds.
2. Who planted the flowers?
3. Who wanted to stay inside and why?
4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.

✓ Read the story three times.

Pretty Flowers

Pat, the lazy, yellow cat, lounged by the window on a sunny spring day. He watched as the red and yellow flowers danced in the breeze. Kim and Sam had planted the flowers a week ago with their mom and were proud of their lovely flower garden.

Pat watched the birds fluttering in the trees and saw butterflies in the garden. The bright sun warmed his fur and made him drowsy. He stretched his legs and then curled up into a cozy ball. Tip, the silly, brown dog, jumped around and begged to go outside, but Pat chose to stay in and take a nap.

Check your understanding of the story.

- 1. Say all the words with short vowel sounds.*
- 2. Which words tell more about Pat?*
- 3. What does make Pat sleepy?*
- 4. You can make questions on your own and have fun.*